CITY OF MIRAMAR FORECLOSURE PREVENTION PROGRAM

Dear Applicant,

The City of Miramar's Foreclosure Prevention Program is a two-step process. Please read carefully below what each step entails.

STEP 1: Pre-Evaluation.

Step 1 of the process is the pre-evaluation. You have one week to complete the application (pages 8 to 20) and return it to CRA.

A Credit Counselor will determine, based on the information provided, if you will be able to continue to pay your mortgage and other outstanding obligations, once the City assists in bringing it current. If the income documentation you provide does not demonstrate that income is sufficient to pay the mortgage and other outstanding bills, foreclosure prevention assistance will not be provided. After Step 1 is successfully completed and it has been determined that income is sufficient to continue paying the mortgage and other obligations, CRA will begin the processing of your application.

1. Completed Application Form: All sections of the application must be completed (no blank spaces). Your application will not be accepted if incomplete. (Must be original document).

STEP 2: Income Certification/Eligibility Determination
